A BIG MEETING

Is What To-night's on the Terminal Grounds will be.

ALL THE CLUBS WILL BE OUT

And Make a Creditable Demonstration Before the Meeting Begins—The Richards Six Footers Have the Right of Line. Speeches to be made by Messrs. Shays and Randall, the latter a son of the Great Protectionist—Henry Baer to Preside.

This evening's Republican meeting at the Terminal station grounds, corner of Eighteenth and Market streets, bids fair to be the occasion of one of the largest gatherings of the campaign. The clubs will make a great demonstration previous to the meeting, and the speaking will be by two distinguished orators.

Chief Marshal Hagruey has called the marching clubs to assemble at the corner of Twelfth and Chapline streets at 7:30 o'clock this evening. The clubs will march in this order: H. C. Richards' Six Footers, Tariff Champions, Elkins Cadets, Douglass Club, First Ward Club, Clay-Union Club, Fifth Ward Club, Sixth Ward Club, Young Men's Republican Escort Club, and Cyclers' Republican Escort Club.

The line of march will be as follows: From Twelfth on Chapline to Eleventh, to Market, to Sixteenth, to Wood, to Eighteenth, to Chapline, to Terminal station.

The speaking will begin as soon as the street demonstration is over. The orators of the evening are Hon. C. C. Shays, of New York, father of the organizer of the National League of Republican Clubs, and Hon. Samuel J. Randall, of Philadelphia, son of the great Protectionist leader in Congress years ago. They will discuss the issues of the campaign at length. The organization of the meeting is as follows:

A WOODSFIELD MAN

While Asleep Falls From a Train in New Jersey and is Killed.

A telegram from Trenton, N. J., received here yesterday brings the information of a tragedy near that place in which a Woodsfield (Ohio) man figured. Louis Dessler is a saloonist in the Ohio town. He had been in the east on a business trip and was en route home on the Pennsylvania road when he met with the accident that caused his death. Wednesday night, while asleep, he fell from the moving train, just east of Trenton. The brakeman had called out "Trenton, and Dessler misunderstood him, evidently thinking it Philadelphia. Some of the passengers believed that the man was asleep at the time he took the fatal plunge. The train was going at the rate of fifty miles an hour. Both legs were broken and an arm cut off. He was taken to a Trenton hospital, where he died Thursday night. The remains are to be taken to Woodsfield, where Dessler has a wife and family.

BELLARE AND BENWOOD BRIDGE

Is to be Built in the Near Future—A Meeting Yesterday.

The Bellare and Benwood bridge directors held a meeting here yesterday afternoon and considered bids and propositions from various bridge builders who were represented by agents, who arrived in the city yesterday morning.

The directors looked over the ground yesterday morning and the gospel of Benwood and Bellare was renewed in regard to the proposed bridge. It was agreed among the directors and stockholders that the bridge would be built for foot, wagon and street car traffic, and bids were asked for from other firms not represented at the meeting.

The board, after discussing other minor details, adjourned to meet the first week in December.

An Entertaining Talk.

Dr. F. A. Bemele, of Des Moines, Iowa, will deliver an address to men at the Young Men's Christian Association building at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. All men are invited to hear this eloquent and earnest speaker.

More Curative Power

Is contained in a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla than in any other similar preparation. It costs the proprietor and manufacturer more. It costs the jobber more and it is worth more to the consumer. It has a record of cures unknown to any other preparation. It is the best to buy because it is the One True Blood Purifier.

HOOD'S PILLS are the best family cathartic and liver medicine. Gentle, reliable, sure.

TETTER, eczema and all similar skin troubles are cured by the use of Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. It soothes at once, and restores the tissues to their natural condition, and never fails to cure piles. Charles R. AMUSEMENTS.

There is a great deal that is unusual about the entertainments to be given all of next week by Professor S. S. Baldwin and his company at the Opera House. Leading newspapers and magazines have devoted pages of comment to the strange and bewildering features that will be given here, and scientific minds have been puzzled in efforts to find the means by which these marvelous results are obtained.

The spiritual presentations are beyond question the greatest efforts of their kind and still nothing supernatural is claimed for them; nothing but human skill, the items given by the clever entertainers who fill out the programme are certainly right up to date and are as clean and refined as they are interesting, but the great "draw" and wonder in the extravaganza of Mrs. Baldwin. She foretells out-murders, finds lost and stolen articles, locates distant relatives and does a whole lot of things that are very wonderful and are true in so many cases that Professor Baldwin is always willing to stake money on his wife's impressions and donate his winnings to charity. An auditor has simply to think of a question, she does the rest.

The Pittsburgh Exposition comes to an end on Saturday, October 24. In point of decoration of the buildings, quality and character of presenting exhibits that are installed in the booths, nothing like it has been shown in this part of the country and it ranks with any local exposition ever held in the United States. Inducements are continually offered by the railroads of this section to visit it. The Pittsburgh press has been unanimous in praising this very remarkable exhibition.

The newest addition of the evergreen melodrama, "The Pulse of New York," will be presented at the Grand, the first half of next week. This season's production is promised to eclipse all former presentations, while the cast will be excellent, headed by Carrie Lamont and Chris Bruno. The play pictures life in Gotham at all hours and among all sorts of people being at the same time correct and true to nature. It illustrates both the dark and sunny sides of life in New York, with equal accuracy. Among the familiar points of interest presented, may be mentioned the Hoffman House Cafe, Herald Square, the Brooklyn Bridge, the famous Five Points, the Bowery, Upper Broadway, and others. The piece abounds with singing, dancing and comedy, while the sensational and dramatic portion serve as a happy contrast. "The Pulse of New York," is the oldest, and by long odds the most successful play of its kind, and like wine, improves with age.

Mr. Charles H. Fisher, in advance of the Baldwin, who appear here next week, was in Wheeling yesterday, showed a number of interested persons an album of photographs and press notices from all parts of the world, taken during the four around the world tours of the Baldwin.

"A LONG FELT WANT"

Provided at the Wigwam Cafe—A First Class Dining Room for Ladies and Gentlemen.

A long felt want in the city has been supplied by Col. Sam Brubaker, proprietor of the Wigwam restaurant and cafe, at 1402 Market street. It is no less than a really first class and up-to-date dining parlor, where ladies and gentlemen can be supplied with everything in short order to be found on a modern bill-of-fare. The second floor of the Wigwam establishment has been elegantly fitted up and enlarged for the accommodation of patrons, a French chef engaged, and all arrangements made to make the cafe an inviting place to those who desire quiet and first class service. The ladies' entrance to the cafe is on Fourteenth street. The ladies' dining parlor is cut out from the main dining room. It is Colonel Brubaker's intention to make the dining parlors connected with his establishment a first class eating resort for both ladies and gentlemen, and a popular place at fair rates for dinner and supper parties. To this end the culinary department has been provided with all modern improvements and one of the best French cooks has been engaged and will begin duty on Monday. It has been a long while since a cafe of this description has been conducted, and as there has been a demand for it the venture is bound to be a success.
